

ST. BEDE'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH, LOS ANGELES, CA
THE 5TH SUNDAY AFTER THE EPIPHANY
February 7, 2010

Welcome to St. Bede's Church. We're pleased that you have chosen to worship here today. If you are visiting, please sign the guest book or fill out the card in the Visitor's packet, and join the congregation downstairs in the parish hall for refreshments after the service. If you are unfamiliar with the ritual customs of the Episcopal Church, simply relax with the liturgy and let the rest of the congregation carry you in worship. The rest rooms, nursery and classrooms are located downstairs off the parish hall.

As Jesus began the work in which he was manifested as God's Son he called and commissioned others to join him. In Luke's account of the calling of the first disciples Jesus joins them on what had been up until then an unsuccessful day of fishing. When Peter sees the catch he says, "Go away from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man!" Jesus says in return, "From now on you will be fishing for people." And Peter with James and John follow him.

As Paul nears the end of the first letter to Corinth he reminds his readers of the message he preaches: that Jesus died for our sins, that he was buried, and that he was raised on the third day and appeared to Cephas (the Aramaic word for "Peter") and the other apostles. Finally he appeared to Paul, who had been an opponent of the gospel. Paul's own qualifications, then, are based on God working in him.

We, like Gideon and Paul and Peter, are called into sharing with God in carrying out God's plan. It is because of God and God's call to us in Jesus that we are who we are, the holy people of God. We gather in the Eucharist to hear and respond anew to God's call and to go forth in the power of God to draw all people into God's family in our ministry and our communion with God in the Holy Spirit.
