

ST. BEDE'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH, LOS ANGELES, CA
THE 3RD SUNDAY OF EASTER
April 18, 2010

Welcome to St. Bede's Church. We're pleased that you have chosen to worship here today. If you are visiting, please sign the guest book or fill out the card in the Visitor's packet, and join the congregation downstairs in the parish hall for refreshments after the service. If you are unfamiliar with the ritual customs of the Episcopal Church, simply relax with the liturgy and let the rest of the congregation carry you in worship. The rest rooms, nursery and classrooms are located downstairs off the parish hall.

This is the third week of the church's celebration of Christ's resurrection. The theme of this Sunday's liturgy is Jesus' revelation of his risen life in the Holy Eucharist: the breaking of the bread and the sharing of the cup. This year we hear John's account of the meeting which took place between the disciples and the Lord on the shore of the sea of Tiberias. It culminated, as did so many of the resurrection appearances, in the Lord sharing food with his disciples and in that way making himself known to them.

The reading from Acts is the account of Paul's conversion from his stance as the first persecutor of the church to its greatest missionary and preacher.

The second reading, from the Revelation to John, envisions the final conversion of the entire human race and of the whole creation. It seems likely that the image of the heavenly worship in this book was inspired by the author's own experience of the church's eucharistic worship.

From the very beginning of the church's life, the Holy Eucharist has been a major means of conversion to faith in Christ, and in Holy Communion the conversion which the Spirit has begun in us in Baptism is nurtured and deepened. The risen Lord, made known to us in the breaking of the bread, continues his work of redemption in the lives of people in every time and place.
